BELGIUM, 39 X 50', CRIME/POLICE

HANNAH MAES is the new chief inspector of the vice squad within the Ghent police department. Young and sexy, she is the only female member of her team. Sparks often fly as the men challenge her authority and doubt her skills. But with her cunning wit and combative attitude, she eventually manages to gain the respect of her team. Hannah is also tormented by the violent assault on her mother many years ago. There are still many unanswered questions and as she tries to get to the bottom of things, it appears that her father is more involved than he would like to admit... A high profile drama with a rich cinematic look, solid acting performance and gripping storylines.
